HIGHLIGHTS:

- Former students have gone on to professional work Off-Broadway, in regional theatre, in popular digital media, and for the Walt Disney Company
- Experienced acting teacher, drawing largely from Uta Hagen and Michael Chekhov Technique
- Teaching is heavily-infused with voice & movement techniques inspired by Patsy Rodenburg, Anne Bogart, and Scott Graham
- Seasoned musical theatre director and instructor, helming 20+ fully-realized musicals and musical revues
- Award-winning director with over 20 years of experience in a wide array of performance genres including plays, musicals, comedy, drama, farce, and devised theatre
- Extensive background in theatre curriculum development for all ages and levels; partnering with academic institutions to create a brand new theatre program, revitalize a stagnant one, as well as self-starting multiple theatre companies with strong instructional offerings
- Proficient in end-to-end theatre program management, including program planning, producing theatrical productions and events, and operational execution
- Currently, a co-founder for AVRA creative, which provides both continued professional work opportunities as well as internship/job opportunities for my students
- Above all, interested in Biblical student mentorship and presenting performance art as a practical means to commune with and glorify God
